DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 14 November 2005 has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

1. Claims 1, 7, 11, 15, 16, 18, 20 and 22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement.

Claims 1, 7, 11, 15, 16, 18, 20 and 22 contain subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. Specifically, claims 1 and 16 recite in lines 5 and 6 that "said feeding circuit...converting a two-wire signal sent from the terminal." Additionally, claims 1 and 16 recite in lines 9 that "a level converter...which converts the two-wire signal sent from the terminal." However in contrast to these two limitations that suggest that the feeding circuit and the level converter convert the same signal sent from the terminal, applicant's disclosure suggests that during an off-hook phase, the "feeding circuit" detects a signal from the terminal while the "level converter is entirely disconnected from the terminal, which renders the "level converter" incapable of converting any signals from the terminal. See page 22, line 18, through page 23, line 1. During the two other phases—i.e. on-hook and feeding circuit disconnection—the applicant's specification discloses that the "feeding circuit" does not perform the claimed conversion. See page 23, lines 2-10, and page 24, lines 21-25. These findings indicate that the "feeding circuit" and the "level converter" never perform a conversion on the same signal. Thus, the applicant's specification does not support the above quoted limitations of the currently amended claims.

For the purposes of this action, the examiner assumes line 9 of claims 1 and 16 to recite "...group, which converts [[the]] a two-wire signal sent from the terminal into a second signal." Appropriate correction is still required.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1, 7, 11, 15, 16, 18, 20 and 22 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
